

ZHANG Hongwu

Partner

Languages: English, Mandarin

Practices: M&A, Antitrust & Competition, Investment & Finance, Shipping & International Trade

+86(21)22261268 zhanghongwu@huizhonglaw.com Shanghai

Profile

Mr. Zhang specializes in mergers and acquisitions, private equity financing, commercial dispute resolution, and antitrust matters. Prior to joining Hui Zhong in March 2014, he served as a maritime judge at the Dalian Maritime Court; worked as corporate counsel in the Legal Department of China Merchants Group, and provided legal services at Jun He Law Offices in areas including IPOs and listings, follow-on offerings for listed companies, and corporate M&A. His practice spans industries such as equipment manufacturing, infrastructure, energy development, real estate, pharmaceuticals, insurance, value-added telecommunications, chemicals, and education.

Mr. Zhang serves as an arbitrator for the China Maritime Arbitration Commission and the Shenzhen International Arbitration Court.

Professional Qualifications

- PRC Bar

Educational Background

2006-2010 Peking University Ph.D.

1994-1997 Dalian Maritime University LL.M.

Professional Experience

Mar 2014-Present Hui Zhong Law Firm, Partner

Dec 2006-Feb 2014 JunHe LLP Shanghai Office, Lawyer

Dec 1999-Sept 2006 Legal Affairs Department of China Merchants Group, Legal Counsel

Oct 1997-Dec 1999 Dalian Maritime Court, Legal Clerk, Assistant Judge

Memberships & Affiliations

- China Maritime Arbitration Commission, Arbitrator

Representative Cases

- A merger and integration project for container operations of a port group.
- A capital increase and mixed-ownership reform for a state-owned energy storage and transportation base.
- A restructuring and entrusted management project for a port.
- A restructuring project for a smart industrial park.
- A restructuring, integration, and capital increase project for a roll-on/roll-off terminal and logistics company.
- An acquisition project for a port and shipping group.
- A capital increase project for a port authority group.
- A restructuring and acquisition project for a big data company.
- An acquisition, land title confirmation, and land swap project for a real estate company.
- A capital increase project for a provincial transportation planning and design institute.
- A case involving a dispute over abuse of market dominance between a domestic gene industry enterprise and an overseas enterprise.
- A case involving an infringement dispute between a principal and a subcontractor heard by the Supreme People's Court.
- A case involving a dispute between an foreign insurance company and a domestic shipping company over an insurance contract, heard by the Supreme People's Court.
- A construction contract dispute case heard by a Provincial High People's Court.
- A shareholder capital contribution dispute case heard by a Provincial High People's Court.
- A case involving a dispute between a foreign-funded enterprise and a listed company over a wind power equipment design and manufacturing contract, heard by an Intermediate People's Court.
- A letter of credit dispute case heard by a Financial Court.
- A chemical raw material purchase and sale contract dispute case heard by a Intermediate People's Court.
- A case involving a dispute between a foreign-funded chain restaurant enterprise and a state-owned enterprise over a property lease contract heard by a District People's Court.
- A buyer's credit dispute case heard by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission.
- An automobile dealership contract dispute case heard by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission.
- A lease insurance dispute case heard by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission.
- A letter of credit dispute case heard by the Beijing Arbitration Commission.
- A charter party contract dispute case heard by the China Maritime Arbitration Commission.
- An offshore platform lease contract dispute case heard by the China Maritime Arbitration Commission.
- A new energy comprehensive service contract dispute case heard by the Shanghai Arbitration Commission.